LEILA DAVIS TO MAKE FIRST STAGE

APPEARANCE HERE NEXT WEEK

MISS LEILA DAVIS.

Salt Lake theatre-goers will have an opportunity next week to welcome Miss Leila Davis, a Salt Lake girl born and bred, who will make her first appearance in the Grand theatre next Monday evening when she will assume the role of Cornelia in "East Lynne".

Although Miss Davis has been on the stage some five years this is the first time she has ever played here.

Her professional career began in San Francisco with the Morosini stock company, and during this engagement Lewis Morrison, changing to see her work, immediately engaged her for the following season to support him in "Faust," playing the important part of Marguerite. She next appeared with the Grand avenue stock company in Philadelphia, where she gained valuable experience.

The past season she has been playing the leading heavy feminine role in Lottie Blair Parker's play, "Under Southern Skies".

Miss Davis accepted a limited engagement with the Ward company and arrived from New York City yesterday, before starting back to New York to fulfill an engagement with Sullivan, Harris & Wood, in whose melodrama, the King of Detectives, she will play the leading part next season.

RABBI'S MOTHER DIES.

Dr. Louis G. Reynolds Receives Unexpected News of Death.

Dr. Louis G. Reynolds, pastor of Temple B'nai Israel, received a telegram yesterday telling of the death of his mother in New York. The dispatch, which was brief, stated that his mother was very ill, and that she died at her home in New York, consequently Dr. Reynolds could not go back there. The news was entirely unexpected.

Services will be held at the synagogue on Sunday evening, May 17, at 8 o'clock. The members of the congregation will be asked to attend. The funeral will be held at the home of the deceased, 1234 W. 2nd St., on Monday, May 18, at 10 o'clock.
